

JUDICIAL BRANCH JUDICIAL EDUCATION COMMITTEE

Type:	Standing
Established:	August 12, 2013
Revised:	January 24, 2020
Report Date:	As requested
Reports to:	Supreme Judicial Court and Trial Court Chiefs

I. Purpose:

The Judicial Education Committee is re-established to administer continuing judicial education programs for Maine's Judiciary at the biennial Judicial College, and at other times as requested by the Chiefs. The responsibility of the Committee is to organize, develop, and present CJE programs that are relevant to the public's need and effective in providing tools and education to support excellence in judging, including programs addressing substantive areas of law, rules, and access to justice, as well as programs that enhance impartiality, decision-making skills, case management skills, and judicial well-being.

II. Membership:

The Judicial Education Committee will include two Superior Court Justices, two District Court Judges, and one Family Law Magistrate. A Supreme Judicial Court Justice shall serve as liaison. The Chief Justice will designate the Chairs. The Supreme Judicial Court shall appoint members to a term of three years, subject to reappointment to a second term. The appointment of a member filling a vacancy on the Committee shall begin a new three-year term.

III. Meetings:

The Judicial Education Committee will meet on a schedule established by the Chairs and approved by the Committee.

IV. Reporting:

The Judicial Education Committee will report to the Supreme Judicial Court and the Trial Court Chiefs as requested by the Chief Justice.

V. Administrative Assistance

The Chair of the Judicial Education Committee will receive the assistance of the Administrative Office of the Courts as necessary and available.

VI. Committee Duration:

The Judicial Education Committee will be a standing committee of the Judicial Branch until otherwise ordered by the Chief Justice.
